GREAT PLANT COMES HERE

Auxiliary Station of Power Company.

Again Decided, This Time Finally, That Southern Power Company Will Locate In Greensboro a Great Auxiliary Steam Plant—A Committee of the Chamber of Commerce So Notified Last Night by Z. V. Taylor, Special Representative of the Southern Power Company.

It has been definitely and finally decided that Greensboro will get one of the two auxiliary steam plants of the Southern Power Company. Mr. Z. V. Taylor, special representative of the Southern Power Company, so notified a committee of the Chamber of Commerce last night.

Work will commence this week, the first thing to be done being the excavation for the reservoir. The site is north of town just east of the pumping station and near the Southern Power Company's substation.

The cost of the plant will be between $200,000 and $300,000 and its erection here will mean the spending in the community of a considerable portion of the above mentioned sum.

Some time ago the Chamber of Commerce appointed a committee to confer with Mr. W. S. Lee, vice president and chief engineer of the Southern Power Company. A conference was to have been held with him the past week, but he was called to Europe and he notified the committee that the matter would be left with Mr. Z. V. Taylor. Mr. Taylor met the committee and Mr. C. C. McLean, secretary of the Chamber, in P. C. Benbow's private office last night and gave them the very agreeable information that the plant would be located here. The members of the committee present were: E. J. Stafford, C. H. Ireland, J. J. Stone, L. J. Brandt, E. P. Wharton, C. A. Bray, Dr. J. T. J. Battle, C. D. Benbow, R. C. Hood and A. M. Seales.

It was given out some time ago that the plant would be located here, but later the decision was revoked and other towns began to endeavor to land the plant. But, as has been stated, Greensboro was selected. Mr. Taylor states that the matter is now settled for good. It will take 6 to 8 months to complete the plant. The other one, which is at Greenville, is nearing completion.

SUPERIOR COURT MONDAY.

Regular September Term Will Convene For Trial of Criminal Cases.

The regular September term of Guilford Superior court for the trial of criminal cases only will convene Monday morning, Judge C. C. Lyon, of Elizabeth City, presiding. There are fully a hundred cases on the docket awaiting trial, about seventy-five of these having been continued from the last term of criminal court.

There are only twelve jail cases to be disposed of, the case of greatest interest being that of State vs. W. L. Vestal and wife who are charged with the murder of a young woman by reason of their having performed an illegal operation. This case will be hard fought and will likely consume two or three days. The defendants have been in jail for a couple of months awaiting trial.

Another case is that against a Stokesdale citizen, in which he is charged with burning his store in order to secure insurance.

At Reformed Church Tonight.

There will be special music by a male quartet at the first Reformed church service at 8 o'clock, the music being appropriate for the sermon, which will be of special interest. Rev. Shuford Peeler, the pastor will preach on "The Everlasting Arms." The sermon will be preceded by a quartet, "My Anchor Holds," by Messrs. E. C. Hamilton, J. C. Coe, J. A. Long and B. C. Cheek. Following the sermon the quartet will sing "Marching On." The public is cordially invited.

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING OF CIVIC DEPARTMENT.

This Branch of Woman's Club Begins Work In Dead Earnest.

The civic department of the Woman's Club held the first meeting of the club year Tuesday morning, Sept. 13 at the Carnegie Library, Mrs. A. B. Kimball, the chairman, presiding.

A large and enthusiastic attendance was present, and plans for the work of the year were discussed. Mrs. Dorian Blair was selected vice chairman, Mrs. Leslie Abbott secretary. It was decided that the same plan of work be carried on by the club as started last year with the addition of two other important features—Public health and extension of civic improvement.

A health committee was formed whose special efforts shall be for the establishment of medical inspection in the schools of our city. This committee was composed of the following ladies: Mesdames Dorian Blair, C. D. McIver, J. L. Brockmann and Miss Florence Cain. The duty of the committee on the extension of civic improvement is to communicate with other towns and villages with regard to organizing civic leagues, offering any assistance and encouragement possible.

The following ladies compose this committee: Mrs. Leslie Abbott, Miss Isla Stratford, Mrs. Sternberger and Mrs. Kimball.

The park improvement committee is composed of Mesdames Hood, Walker, Weston, Osborne, Misses Meta Beall and Linda Wharton.

The committee on Junior Civic work: Mesdames Fairbrother, McKenzie, Penny, Patterson, G. Bryne and Curry.

Sanitation committee: Mesdames McKenzie, Jeter, Petty, Fortune, Hinkle and Transou.

Mrs. Sternberger made an earnest plea for play grounds for the children which seems to be a much discussed subject now. Miss Meta Beall and others heartily endorsed Mrs. Sternberger's remarks and dwelt upon the importance of more and better breathing places and play grounds for the physical culture and health of the children of our city.

Mrs. B. McKenzie read the following interesting paper on the Work of the Summer.

Since the beginning of the existence of the civic department of the Woman's Club, its ideal has been a clean city, a healthy city, a beautiful city, and successful or not its efforts have always been with that end in view.

In the early spring a number of our progressive business men offered prizes to the children of the Junior Civic League for the best kept lawns (front and back) neatest sidewalks and driveways most attractive and most artistically arranged flower gardens, etc. A great many of the children are trying for these prizes and all summer have been engaged in this work, many of them striving under great difficulties to make home surroundings attractive and beautiful. Many of these children have removed rocks and rubbish of many kinds from their back yards and brought soil from the woods with their own hands and made beds and are now enjoying the flowers where once the rubbish lay.

Mrs. Fairbrother who had charge of this department appointed the following ladies to visit these homes at regular intervals through the summer and to keep in touch with the work. Mrs. Whitsett, Mrs. Sternberger, Mrs. Jeter, Mrs. Kimball, Miss Meta Beall, Mrs. Hood and Mrs. McKenzie.

Three ladies will be selected to decide the winners of these prizes and they will be presented at a children's party which will be given the members of the Junior League at an early date. The plans for this party are now in the hands of Mrs. Fairbrother's committee.

We note with pleasure and pride the many improvements made this summer both inside and outside the railway station. The firemen, too, have kept their headquarters quite up to their usual standard of excellence as regards neatness and cleanliness, and the flower beds which were planted and have been cared for by the firemen all summer are among the most beautiful in the city. The triangular bed of coleus canna and other decorative plants at the intersection of Gorrel and Ashboro streets has been a pleasure to the eye of the passerby as well as the one on Green street near the Farmers' warehouse.

We are glad, too, to see the improvement of the grounds about the Lindsay Street graded school as well as those of the Greensboro Female College. We note that some of our public buildings have been kept in a fairly good condition all summer while others have been sadly neglected and show great need of elbow grease and tubs of water together with soap, sand and pearline. Douglas and Fisher parks both of which are

WILL DISCUSS CITY CHARTER

Mass Meeting to be Held Monday Night.

Draft of Proposed Charter Looking Toward Commission Form of Government To Be Discussed At Mass Meeting of Citizens in Court House Tomorrow Night—Everybody Invited To Come Out and Participate In Discussion.

Pursuant to calls issued by President E. J. Justice, of Chamber of Commerce, and Mayor E. J. Stafford a mass meeting of the citizens of the city will be held in the court house tomorrow night at 8 o'clock for the purpose of discussing the draft of the proposed charter, looking toward a commission form of government for the city. Every citizen is cordially invited to come out and participate in the discussion and advance his views on the points at issue. It is hoped that there will be a large attendance of the citizens as the matter to be discussed is of great importance to all citizens.

The Telegram has printed the more important features of the proposed charter, outlining in brief form what would be expected of the four commissioners should the commission plan as outlined be adopted. The meeting tomorrow night is for the purpose of allowing every citizen to express his views on the subject. If the matter cannot be discussed thoroughly the meeting will adjourn from time to time until the draft can be prepared to suit the people.

As has been stated before, under the commission plan the people will rule in the city, for they will have power to pass or repeal any ordinance, and they can recall any city official at any time should he fail to render efficient service to the city.

About the only objection heard so far, and the proposed charter has been discussed by many during the past few days, is that there will be only $50,000 to be expended by the city annually, excepting the expenses which are already fixed, and therefore the services of four men will not be needed to dispose of this amount. Then some think the mayor should be a more dignified personage than a mere tax collector; that he should have general oversight over the entire board of commissioners and employ subordinates for the actual work.

Epworth League Notice.

On account of the revival meeting in progress at West Market Street Methodist church next week there will be no meeting of the Epworth League on Monday evening. Secretary.

naturally beautiful should be made, with little expense, so lovely as to attract and gladden the eye and heart of all who visit them. They should be made delightful loitering and resting places for Greensboro folk both young and old, especially for those who work hard through the week and on Sunday afternoons have no other place to go for rest and quiet. But, sad to relate, the grass in Douglas park has not been cut this summer. In Fisher park it was cut one time, then left lying in piles to die there. Not one rustic seat, one log across a stream, one bridge, one anything has been placed in either park by the city for improvement, and mind you both parks were turned over to the city as a gift by two of her citizens!

Will not the ladies of the civic department make special effort for the improvement of our parks this year? Will they not urge our city to consider the importance of the beautifying and maintenance of her parks?

We are pleased to note that many of the merchants on Elm street are taking out the old fronts to their stores and building more modern ones. If our main thoroughfare had the lighting facilities it so badly needs and deserves it would make an attractive and imposing appearance to the thousands of visitors who pass in and out on the trains at night, but as it is, the darkness around the station and up our main street and most of our residential portions is equal to that of a sleepy country town or village.

We are much pleased to note that the entrance to the opera house is to have a coat of paint and plastering.

EXCESS FEES DUE THE COUNTY

Auditor Abbott Has Ascertained Amount.

Bills Mailed the Members of Board of County Commissioners and Highway Commission Yesterday—Mr. J. A. Hoskins Makes Payment in Few Hours—Other Members Will Probably Have Settled By Tomorrow Night.

County Auditor J. Leslie Abbott yesterday completed the work of ascertaining the exact amount of excess fees received by the members of the Board of County Commissioners and the Highway Commission and mailed bills to each of the members stating the amount due the county. The total amount due by a members of the two boards is $1,745.25, this being for services rendered the county in addition to time spent in attending regular and special meetings.

Mr. Abbott states that he went through the vouchers of the two boards for the past seven years and the checking up of the several accounts was no small task. In fact it required considerable work to go through the various records and separate the fees lawfully and unlawfully received.

As has been stated heretofore all the members of the two boards have signified their willingness to repay the county all moneys unlawfully received, as they had misinterpreted the meaning of the statute forbidding compensation for services rendered except at regular and special meetings of the boards. That the members are willing is signified by the fact that Mr. J. A. Hoskins, a member of the Highway Commission, rendered a check to cover the amount charged against him in a few hours after the exact amount was known. And several others phoned to Mr. Abbott, stating that they would come in Monday and settle in full.

Auditor Abbott sent to each of the members of the two boards a letter reading as follows: "Dear Sir: Under the recent decision of the Supreme court in the case of Davidson vs. County of Guilford, which does not allow pay to commissioners for special or committee work, but only for regular or special meetings called by the chairman, I find you have been paid the sum of $— for such work. You will please favor the county treasurer with check for this amount at your earliest convenience and oblige."

The amount due by each of the commissioners follows:

J. A. Davidson	$323.50
L. A. Walker	180.90
W. C. Tucker	162.80
John A. Young	73.50
W. G. Bradshaw	43.50

Total $786.20

The amount due by the members of the Highway Commission follows:

J. L. King	354.50
E. J. Stafford	332.50
F. M. Pickett	133.50
J. A. Hoskins	95.70
J. H. Johnson	14.50
D. E. Waggoner	12.40
D. H. Coble	11.95
J. C. Murchinson	4.00

Total $959.05

Grand total $1,745.25

A Free Address on Fraternalism Monday Night.

William R. Grant, of Illinois, will deliver an address on fraternalism Monday night at 8 o'clock in the Modern Woodmen Hall in the Bevil building at corner of North Elm and Gaston streets.

The address will be free and the public is cordially invited to be present.

The speaker has recently been elected State deputy of this state for the Modern Woodmen of America.

THE PUBLIC LIBRARY

New Publications In Library of Interest To The Various Departments of City's Life.

The reading room of the Public Library has an unusual number of new publications of interest in various departments of our city's life.

"The Century Club of American Newspapers" is a publication of the St. Louis Republic containing sketches of newspapers in America over one hundred years old.

The educational number of the Brooklyn Eagle will be of practical service to students of our educational institutions. A copy of "Southern Good Roads" ought to find appreciative readers in Guilford county just now.

A bulletin of Textile Work from our A. & M. College at Raleigh, two publications of the Draper Company in Hope-dale Man on Colliss Machinery, The Annual report of the Cotton crop for 1909-10, from New Orleans, and the Experiment Station Record will be of interest to other readers.

The Craftsman Art Catalogue of Arts and Crafts goods will be of especial interest to members of our own Greensboro Art Guild. Two large volumes of the 1906 Census of Religious Bodies will be of service in the reference department, while the last item given "Spalding's Football Guide for 1910" will equal the baseball guides in popularity with Greensboro boys.

SENATOR GORE WILL PROBABLY SPEAK HERE

Distinguished Statesman To Spend Tuesday Night In City.

It is quite likely that Senator T. P. Gore, of Oklahoma, will make a speech in Greensboro Tuesday night. He speaks in Reidsville Tuesday and will spend Tuesday night in Greensboro. While he would not allow it to be announced that he would make a political address in the city it is more than probable that the Democrats will arrange a reception in his honor, at which he will be asked to make a short talk.

On Wednesday Senator Gore speaks in Salisbury and on Wednesday night he speaks in Charlotte.

County Chairman Sherrill will send a representative to Chatham, where Senator Gore speaks Monday, to escort him to Greensboro.

In Municipal Court.

Mattie Seales was tried in Municipal court yesterday morning on two charges. Vagrancy was the first offence and Judge Eure promptly allowed her thirty days in the workhouse. The same sentence was imposed in the second case, the charge being disorderly conduct. The second sentence is to begin at the expiration of the first. Egbert F. Roberts was given thirty days on the roads in a case charging disorderly conduct.

Special Meetings At Church of the Covenant.

The two preaching services at 11 and 5 o'clock in the Church of the Covenant today will be preparatory to a series of meetings which are to begin next Sunday. The Rev. D. P. McGeachy, of Lenoir, N. C., will assist Mr. Williams in these series of meetings. The public most cordially invited.

Towel and Soap Shower.

The Emma Gray Missionary Society will have a towel and soap shower at Smith Memorial building Monday afternoon at four o'clock for the benefit of Barium Springs orphanage. All members are urged to be present and not to forget the towels and soap for the orphans.

Double trading stamps all day Monday. Wallace Clothing Company.

JUSTICE TALKS ABOUT TRUSTS

Answers Interview of A. E. Holtan.

Says It Does Not Lie In the Mouth of the District Attorney To Criticize the Democrats Seeing That He Has Been District Attorney For Twelve Years Without Prosecuting a Single Trust—Mr. Justice Very Warmly Received by the Democracy of Rockingham—A. D. Ivie Also Speaks.

Special To The Telegram.

Madison, Sept. 17.—There was a large gathering of Democrats this afternoon at 2 o'clock in Webster's warehouse and strong Democratic speeches were made by A. D. Ivie, of Rockingham, and E. J. Justice, of Greensboro, former speaker of the House of Representatives. James Sharpe presided over the meeting. The speech introducing Mr. Justice to the audience was made by C. O. McMichael.

The first speech was made by A. D. Ivie, who is a candidate for the State Senate and who was formerly Democratic county chairman. He discussed State and National issues in an effective and forceful manner.

Mr. Justice was received with the greatest enthusiasm. His speech seemed to touch a popular chord and time and again the crowd loudly applauded him.

The speech was largely a reply to a recent newspaper interview given by United States District Attorney Holtan in which the District Attorney condemned the Democratic party for failing to curb the trusts. And it was a decidedly convincing answer. The circumstance was pointed out that Mr. Holtan had been District Attorney for twelve years without prosecuting a trust. The former Speaker spoke with the keenest derision of the efforts of Mr. Holtan to set himself up as a critic of the Democratic party for its attitude toward trusts. Mr. Holtan was the last man in the world, the speaker said, to criticize the Democratic party in this connection.

Mr. Holtan had remarked upon the Democrats' passing a toothless trust bill and Mr. Justice made this the occasion of showing up the record of the Republicans and the Democrats in the Legislature. In one of the efforts made in recent years to get an effective anti-trust law passed, he said, every Democrat in the House voted for a bill with teeth and every Democrat in the Senate except 4. The bill would have passed if a single Republican could have been gotten to vote for it. Mr. Justice said in part:

The campaign of education has progressed until the people understand that when a man defends the trusts his reason is in his pocket and not in his head.

The question is how can trusts be destroyed, rather than ought they to be destroyed.

It is all important that the real position of political parties, on this question should be understood, to the end that the party which really believes that private monopoly is indefensible and should be destroyed, shall receive the votes of the people.

The party that is in fact ruled by the people will get right and stay right on the trust question.

The self-interest of the masses will keep the government subservient to their interests, if they make themselves heard and their power felt.

I do not stop to argue that private monopolies are indefensible and should be abolished, but I proceed upon the assumption that this is already established and that no argument in its support is required. In the discussion of this question it is my purpose to be entirely accurate in my statements of facts, and not to sacrifice accuracy to partisanship.

The regular, or "stand-pat" wing of the Republican party contends that private monopolies and trusts are the logical products of business development, and cannot be destroyed but can be controlled.

This position forfeits any claim it asserts to the support of the people. The majority of the progressive or insurgent element of the Republicans, and a majority of the Democrats believe that it is a dangerous doctrine, and if the trusts are allowed to exist their inevitable place is that of master; and they believe that if the people are to be free from the ex-

Enjoy Using Herpicide on Account of Its Distinctiveness.

The ladies who have used Newbro's Herpicide speak of it in the highest terms, for its quick effect in cleansing the scalp of dandruff and also for its excellence as a general hair-dressing. It makes the scalp feel fresh and it allays that itching which dandruff will cause. Newbro's Herpicide effectively cures dandruff, as it destroys the germ that causes it. The same germ causes hair to fall out, and later baldness. In killing it, Herpicide stops falling hair and prevents baldness. It is also an ideal hair dressing, for it lends an aristocratic charm to the hair that is quite distinctive. Sold by leading druggists. BREAD-BAKING FOR AN ARMY.
Experiments With Field Ovens at the Fort Riley Camp.

One of the interesting places at the Fort Riley camp of instruction is the baker's and cook's field school, a branch of the regular established school at Fort Riley. Experiments are being carried on there with a view of determining the efficacy of the different types of field ovens, and their practicability in time of warfare, in an effort to rid the army in the field of the hardback ration.

In addition to the experimental side, however, the tests have another and greater value, since the entire force of 8,000 men now in camp is supplied with bread from these ovens. Pastries, the officers' messes also are made here, and a small mess, for employees of the pack trains is being conducted in conjunction.

It requires a surprisingly small amount of equipment, and the number of men employed is small. Five field ovens are used, and 52 men turn out the bread. It takes 5,500 loaves of bread daily to satisfy the demand of the combined regular and militia forces, and every loaf of it is made in the camp.

Two types of the field ovens are used. Three are the Dunn-Holbrook ovens, which have three baking compartments, each with a capacity of 126 two-pound loaves. Two Marshall ovens also are used. They contain two compartments and are of similar capacity.

What impresses the visitor at the field school most is the fact that every bit of the equipment is collapsible and can be stored into the smallest possible compass. The entire camp can be taken down and made ready for transportation within an hour, and eight wagons can convey it from one point to another with ease. The camp is clean, sanitary and hygienic, and all the utensils are as bright as soap and water can make them. The baking is done out of doors, but all previous work is carried on in flyproof tents.

In addition to the collapsible field ovens, which are constructed of sheet iron, experiments are being made with the old-fashioned clay or "dobe" ovens. These are built along the lines of the Mexican ovens and can be constructed and got ready for use within a very short time. The method of making them is exceedingly simple. A trench is dug in the ground and a barrel is fitted into it, about one-half of it projecting above the level of the ground.

This is plastered over with clay and a final coating of mortar. Then the barrel is burned out and the oven is ready for use. The method of baking is just as simple as the construction of the oven. A hot fire is built inside and when a sufficient temperature has been attained the fire is raked out and the pan of bread placed inside, the entrance being covered over with clay or sand. Within an hour the oven is uncovered and the bread is taken out well baked.

The Reading of Telegraph Messages by Sound.

STORY OF THE FIRST TRIAL

A Lack of Tape Caused Alonzo B. Cornell to Attempt Interpreting the Morse Code by Ear—The Discovery That Abolished the Use of the Tape.

Ezra Cornell is known in history as the father of Cornell university, as one of the men who helped to build the first telegraph line and as an ardent organizer of telegraph systems in the early days, being instrumental in the formation of the now famous Western Union Telegraph company. His son, Alonzo B. Cornell, became ultimately vice president of the Western Union and governor of New York state—high commercial and political honors.

Yet he once confessed to me that he felt he should be credited with the additional honor of having made the discovery that telegraph messages could be read by ear, and he seemed to take more pride in his part in bringing this about than he did in any of his other achievements.

"I was trained as a telegraph operator," said Mr. Cornell in telling me the story. "I suppose I took to telegraphy naturally because of my father's deep and large interests in the then new mode of communication. Anyway, I learned the Morse key easily, and I was, in fact, very fond of telegraphing from both the practical and the scientific standpoint."

"One afternoon, sometime in the early fifties, when I was stationed at Albany, N. Y., there was an unusual rush of newspaper dispatches—I was in charge of the press key—and in the midst of the task of receiving them I found to my consternation that I was out of tape. Before taking my seat before the key I had neglected to replenish the tape reel."

"There was a bountiful supply of tape in the cellar of the building, but it was a long trip there—there were no elevators in those days—and I knew that to go there I would waste precious time. And there were those anxious newspaper men hanging over my shoulder."

"Suddenly, as I fished about mentally for the quickest way out of my dilemma, this thought popped into my head: 'You don't need any tape. Half the time you don't look at it when the dispatches are coming in before you write them out. You trust to your ears to tell what the instrument says. Why not do so now?' Instantly I determined to see whether or not I could take the dispatches by sound alone."

"I put my fingers on the key and broke in on New York, whence the dispatches were coming. 'Send rather slowly and very distinctly,' I asked the man at the other end of the wire. He at once began to do so—not without some curiosity as to my reason, I found out later."

"But I didn't think of that at the time, for I was glowing all over with the knowledge that I could write out the dispatches—and write them correctly, for they made sense—by simply listening to the sounds that the key made."

"Thus I continued taking the dispatches to the very end. Then the New York operator called me. 'What are you doing up there?' he asked. 'Why did you want me to send slowly and distinctly?'"

"I answered that I had said goodbye to the telegraph tape forever and told him of the discovery I had made. He was immediately interested. 'Send me slowly and very distinctly fifteen or twenty words, and I'll see whether or not I can do the same thing,' he requested."

"I did so, full of confidence, and a little later there came to me this message: 'I've done it too. Some of the other boys say they can. I predict that within a month there won't be an inch of tape used in the New York office.'"

"Years later," added Mr. Cornell, "I was told that about the time that I discovered for myself a new and revolutionary method of receiving telegraph messages the same method was also discovered by an operator in the main office in Pittsburgh. I have no doubt that this is true. Sooner or later the discovery was bound to be made not only in one, but several offices. But I have always felt that I was the first to make the discovery and should be credited with it in telegraphic history."—Boston Globe.

Watering the Horse.
It is allowable when a horse is hot to let him have three or four swallows of cool water, but no more. The few swallows will help cool him, and another limited drink may be given every few minutes for four or five times, after which he may drink his fill without danger. In careless or inexperienced hands, however, the only safe way is to let the horse stand for half an hour or more with no water until he is fairly cooled off.—Country Life in America.

Descriptive.
"The eye of a little miss was attracted by the sparkle of dew at early morning. 'Mamma,' she exclaimed, 'it's hotter'n I thought it was.' 'What do you mean?' 'Look here; the grass is all covered with perspiration.'—St. Louis Star.

Failures are with heroic minds the stepping stones to success.—Halliburton.

Mr. Roosevelt keeps right on saying that there is no room for the crook in public life, just as if anybody save the crooks themselves thought there was.

One of the Southern cities that have been humping themselves in the last ten years is Dallas, Texas. Its population in 1900 was 42,628. Now it is 92,104, a gain of 116 per cent. Few cities have made a better record.

A New York man has given up a four thousand dollar job because there was nothing for him to do. Plenty of men under such circumstances would make a noise like they were doing something and continue to connect with the payroll. But every now and then Diogenes with his lantern spies an honest man. And we really believe that his tribe is increasing.

Secretary Ballinger, the dispatches state, is on his way from Seattle to Washington and whether he will resign, it is said, depends on the attitude of his associates in the President's cabinet. This is considerably less of a "defi" than Mr. Ballinger has been in the habit of handing out. Perhaps he is beginning to see a light.

Tom Watson, who was hooted into silence when making a speech in Atlanta some time ago, says he will go back and finish his speech. The trouble with Watson is that he has a highly exaggerated notion of his own importance. It's a safe bet that he thinks Georgia would go to the dogs if he were to die unexpectedly and before he had time to make arrangements for the future welfare of his State.

There is universal regret among the newspaper fraternity of the State at the death of John M. Julian, editor of the Salisbury Post. A man of prepossessing appearance and manners, he was deservedly popular with all who knew him. As a newspaper man he was sincere, safe and sensible. He will be greatly missed in the councils of the North Carolina Press Association in whose meetings he was conspicuous. One or more times a member of the State Legislature, he was especially and effectively interested in better advantages for the State's insane. He led an active, useful life and left, as we believe, a lasting influence for good.

New York City seems to be considerably stirred up over the marital troubles of Robert Winthrop Chanler, who after divorcing his first wife, deeded all his wealth to a noted prima donna, Lina Cavalieri in order to get her to marry him. She married him and with the greed of a Shylock made him convey over to her about all the poor fellow had. There may be love on the part of the groom in a case like this, but he lacks common sense or he would perceive that love does not actuate the beautiful but heartless creature who has emeshed him in her wiles. Love is not reducible to dollars and cents. It pays its debts with a different sort of coin from that which is the measure of value in ordinary commercial transactions.

It is a Democratic year and the Democrats are everywhere putting their "first" men to the front.—News and Observer.

The fact that the Democrats are putting their "first" men to the front goes a long way towards accounting for this being a Democratic year. A party may have delinquencies not a few, its record may be marked with inconsistencies, but when it offers its support to a pure man for office, it is apt to make a mighty good showing when election day comes. A candidate, to be a winner, should be above suspicion. He must have a reputation as well as a character without a blemish. For it some times happens that a man's character is clean but his usefulness is impaired by some suspicion attaching to his record, wholly unjust it may be, but unescapable nevertheless. The Democratic party should in all years put its "first" men forward.

Y. W. C. A. WORK DURING PAST YEAR

Reports of Several Departments Most Gratifying to Members of Association—Report of Secretary In Full As Made At Meeting Friday Evening.

The annual meeting of the Young Women's Christian Association held at the association rooms Friday night was full of inspiration to the members, as well as of interest to the friends of the association who attended the meeting and several of whom became members at that time.

In the absence from the city of the president, Mrs. A. W. McAlister, the business session was presided over by Mrs. G. W. Whitsett.

After devotional opening exercises conducted by Mrs. O. C. Wysong, reports were read by the general secretary, Miss Cain, and the chairmen of the departments. Following is the annual report of the general secretary.

"The steps by which we climb seem sometimes slow, and it is good, now, and again, to turn and look back over the path we have come and take courage from the distance which lies between us and our starting point.

"One year ago our association consisted of a consecrated board of directors, a rather indefinite list of nominal members (nominal, because there was nothing to which to belong) and the promise of a general secretary.

"Last October, 1909, the association was reorganized, and these rooms opened, not so much as a place to which to attract young women, but rather as a centre from which to work for the best interests of all the young women of the city.

"Aside from assisting in the organization of the work in its various departments, meeting with board and committees, helping to shape the policy of the association, and attending to such necessary office work as issuing 340 pieces of mail, and preparing forms for printed matter, a large part of the effort of the general secretary has been spent in the endeavor to spread intelligent interest in the association, and to secure for it the recognition which is necessary to its greatest usefulness. To this end she has made 90 calls and has presented the work of the association to 26 other organizations and groups, including a series of 11 neighborhood parlor conferences held for that purpose. The secretary has also presided at 26 of the Sunday afternoon vesper services.

STORE NEWS

To the College Girls.

We welcome you back to our beloved city—"The City of Flowers." We are proud of North Carolina, but are especially proud of Greensboro, the city that stands for the higher education of the young women of our State. To the fair daughters of the Old North State who have come to spend the college year here, we know there will be many questions of importance you will want to ask. One of these important questions will be this: Where can I procure the BEST and the NEWEST things that Dame Fashion has to offer me in the way of dress. That's just the question we want to help you answer. Since last school year we have made extensive additions to our store. The Ready-to-Wear Department is now on the first floor. The Rest and Dressing Room will soon be complete. This store can truly be called the "Daylight Store"—the store has more of the light of day, we think, than any store in the city. This store enjoys the esteem and confidence of the people of Greensboro. We guarantee that every one that enters the door that opens into this great store "Shall have a square deal"—that what you buy here is the highest standard of quality, and the latest and newest styles according to fashion—it must be the best going or it can not have a place in this, the "style center" of Greensboro.

We welcome you college girls to our great store, and promise you if at any time you become dissatisfied with any purchase you have made with us, that if you will kindly return same to us, we will gladly refund your money. Satisfaction or your money back is the rule here. Here's to the college girls from the Old North State and the U. S. A.

has been 5100. (This does not include the attendance at the Sunday services of the Lutheran congregation which are at present being held at the association rooms). Young women have been directed to suitable boarding houses, lone some girls have been cheered by the friendships formed through the association and more than one young woman has here received a broader vision of the possibilities of her own life and come into a fuller knowledge of Him "whom to know is life." Many and varied have been the opportunities of the secretary to render little services. She has been consulted on subjects ranging from courses of study to refreshments suitable for an evening party, and from the lighting of a city to the training of children, (upon not all of which she has been qualified to advise) and she has served in capacities ranging from Sunday school teacher to society reporter. But the service which brings her the greatest joy is the opportunity of serving in the capacity of a friend.

"In pursuance of our policy of cooperation it has been our privilege this year to cooperate in various ways with the churches, through the Sunday schools, young people's and missionary societies, the public schools, the Woman's Club, the Merchants' Association, the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, the Associated Charities, the Laymen's Missonary Movement, and the Tuberculosis Exhibition.

"The success which has been ours this year of our new life has been due in large measure to the splendid co-operation on the part of the members who have given so willingly of their time and strength, and to the host of friends whose interest and financial support have been so greatly appreciated.

"Especially do we feel our indebtedness to the men of the Young Men's Christian Association for the hearty support they have given us and for the promise of their continued support in the future. But back of all the effort of board, committees, secretary and members, the real root from which our association has grown has been the earnest prayers of the faithful women who, from the beginning, have stood loyal to their faith in the Young Women's Christian Association as an instrument chosen of God for the development of Christian young womanhood. Our purpose has not been to establish a standard Young Women's Christian Association in Greensboro, or to follow any splendid precedent, but rather to discover what are the needs, physical, mental, moral, social and economic, of the young women of the city and just how far these needs are being met, then by co-operating with every other agency which touches the lives of young women for good, to seek to meet those needs as they exist.

"Cheered and encouraged by the backward glance, we are ready in the words of St. Paul, "forgetting the things which are behind—the successes as well as the failures—to press towards the mark of our high calling in Christ Jesus."

Mrs. Charles D. Melver reported for the department of religious work of which she is chairman, that there had been held, through the winter and spring, three well attended Bible classes, two taught by Miss Emma Page of the G. F. College, and one by Mrs. Holt Laird, and one mission study class, under the leadership of Mrs. S. S. Myrick. One member of this class, Miss Irene Boyles, has volunteered for service in the foreign field and has already left for Nashville to prepare for this work. Twenty-eight Sunday afternoon vesper meetings were held and one noonday service on "Good Friday."

Mrs. G. W. Whitsett, chairman of the educational department, reported three classes in physical culture with an enrollment of 39; one class in embroidery, stenciling, etc., enrolling 28; one pupil in elocution; piano lessons arranged at special rates for 4 young women; a social study club with a membership of 22, though 54 women attended one or more of the course of lectures arranged for this club; and a nature study club, the "Ramblers," for the junior members, with an enrollment of 13.

The rooms committee, Mrs. Frank Leak, chairman, reported the selection and furnishing of the present headquarters, last October. This committee has had general oversight of the rooms and has rented them during the year to several other societies for regular and special meetings. The rooms have been made a meeting place for committee meetings, etc. of many organizations and are at present being used for the Sunday morning services of the Lutheran congregation.

The report of the social committee was read by Mrs. R. C. Hood. Practically one social affair per month has been held, until the warm weather began. These have been well attended and most enjoyable, the "house-warming," the Chinese social, in charge of the mission study class, and the "moving picture show" deserving special mention. Also there has been an informal social hour in connection with the Sunday afternoon meetings each week.

The finance committee, of which Mrs. John W. Petty has recently assumed the chairmanship, reported that at the beginning of the year, Oct. 1, 1909, the association had had in the bank a "nest egg" toward a building fund. This fund had been drawn upon in starting the work, and $1,005.04 had been received from subscriptions, memberships, tuitions and other sources, making it possible to meet all bills promptly. The year will close with all bills paid and it is hoped, with the amount due before the end of the fiscal year, Sept. 30, to replace the amount borrowed from the building fund.

The report of Mrs. Jos. J. Stone, treasurer, showed a present balance on hand of $118.12.

These reports were received with enthusiasm by the members. The principal business of the session was the election of the board of directors. The nominating committee, composed of Mrs. S. S. Myrick, Miss Irene Boyles and Mrs. R. G. Sloan, had done conscientious work and presented, along with the names of the former board members, a number of new names of strong women, representing the different denominations, who had been made thoroughly acquainted with the importance and responsibilities of the directorship. These names were posted with instructions to "vote for 21." While the votes were being counted, the members were delighted by the beautiful piano selections by Miss Lessie Lindsey and vocal solos by Miss Ruth Kreech. After an informal social time spent in the enjoyment of music, conversation and fruit frappe, the secretary of the board, Mrs. D. H. Blair, read the report of the tellers.

At the October meeting of the board, these names will be divided into groups of seven, one third to serve for one year, one third for two years, and one third for three years, and hereafter one third of the number will be elected annually, the term of service being three years.

HAS TWO VOICES

Young Italian With a Most Remarkable Throat.

Pittsburg Dispatch.

Luciano Luca, a young Italian from the Milan Conservatory, who is making his first American tour this season, has a most remarkable throat. The young man sings a perfect soprano and a perfect baritone. The critics of the metropolis are rhapsodizing him. Indeed the skeptics are inclined to believe that some imposture is being practiced upon them in the way of a singer behind the scenes. They cannot realize that it is possible for the pure, limpid soprano notes to come from the same throat that sings the deep-chested, round, resonant baritone.

Mr. Luca, by the way, is a graduate of the Italian opera and has sung under the patronage of King Emmanuel. He is a handsome youth, a serious student, and a thorough musician.

VINEYARDS OF NORTHWEST

A Grape Grower Returns Enthusiastic After Visiting Europe.

Portland Oregonian.
That several districts in the Pacific Northwest are much better adapted to the growing of grapes than the most famous vineyard localities of Europe is the declaration of Rudolph Schleisher, of Lewiston, Idaho, who is now in the city. Mr. Schleisher recently returned from a year's visit in Great Britain and Continental Europe, and while on his trip took occasion to visit the principal grape producing districts and some of the large wineries.

For the last 25 years Mr. Schleisher has been engaged in raising grapes in the Clearwater country, above Lewiston, and is one of the best-informed men on the industry in the Northwest. In discussing the opportunities for grape growing in Oregon, Washington and Idaho he said:

"My recent travels in Europe and in the United States convince me that we can and are raising the finest quality of grapes that come on the markets of the world. By virtue of the soil, climate and altitude we produce a better flavored, higher colored and larger grape than is found either in California or Central Europe.

"In Southeastern France I found that the quality of grapes was practically on a par with ours. They have been raising grapes in that section for so many years that they have reduced the work to a science. If the people of the Northwest who are engaged in this industry would take as much care with their vineyards the quality of the product would be much better than any in France or Italy.

"The fancy grapes in Europe sell from $1 to $1.50 a pound. Of course, it is only the wealthy class that can afford to buy them. If we could have a European market for our grapes there would be no limit to the demand for our product. In that event our vineyards would be easily worth from $4,000 to $5,000 an acre. With the prices that have obtained during the last few years our best vineyards have averaged a net income of from $400 to $500 an acre.

"There are many sections in Oregon which would be peculiarly adapted to grape growing. The lowlands, in my opinion, could be devoted to table grapes, while the side hills should produce a first-class quality of wine grapes."

It Saved His Leg.

"I thought I'd lose my leg," writes J. A. Swensen, of Watertown, Wis. "Ten years of eczema, that 15 doctors could not cure, had at last laid me up. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured it, sound and well." Infallible for Skin Eruptions, Eczema, Salt Rheum, Bolls, Fever Sores, Burns, Scalds, Cuts and Piles. 25c at Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

When Merit Wins.

When the medicine you take cures your disease, tones up your system and makes you feel better, stronger and more vigorous than before. That is what Foley's Kidney Pills do for you, in all cases of backache, headache, nervousness, loss of appetite, sleeplessness and general weakness that is caused by any disorder of the kidneys or bladder. Holton Drug Co.

Name No Hindrance.

"Well! According to the census report, Kalamazoo continues to grow." "So it does. You can't always tell how things are going to turn out. I once knew a man named Sniggs who had quite a successful career."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Don't Break Down.

Severe strains on the vital organs, like strains on machinery, cause breakdowns. You can't over-tax stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels or nerves without serious danger to yourself. If you are weak or run-down, or under strain of any kind, take Electric Bitters the matchless, tonic medicine. Mrs. J. E. Van de Sande, of Kirkland, Ill., writes: "That I did not break down, while enduring a most severe strain, for three months, is due wholly to Electric Bitters." Use them and enjoy health and strength. Satisfaction positively guaranteed. 50c at Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

Blobbs—"Bjones may be a mischief maker, but he is at least generous." Blobbs—"Yes, it is hard for a man to make trouble for himself without giving his friends a share of it."

In Washington.

"It is said that there are 16,000 more men than women in Washington." "Yet is a curious fact that more meaningless talking is done in Washington than in any other city in America."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Two Short Words.

"The best," well describes the satisfaction every user feels when he tries Vick's Croup and Pneumonia Salve for his head or chest cold, or his croupy child. It is a comfort, a cure and a joy. Try a jar and get your money back if not pleased.

Modern Proverb.

"Laugh and the world laughs with you," May be quite common sense, But people like it better If they smile at your expense. —New York Sun.

Her Regret.

She went a-fishing one fine day. She said: "Tis slow, I vow; I never get a chance to say, 'The line is busy now!'" —Detroit News.

Sound mind in sound body is best condition for our highest achievement. Sound body depends on the liver and bowels performing regularly their proper function. Vick's Little Liver Pills correct irregularities and keep these organs in fine shape by this gentle, harmless aid.

Hoax—"Miss Peachleigh looks like perfect poem." Joax—"Yes, but if you try to kiss her you'll find she is at all averse."

Mrs. Jacob Wilmert, Lincoln, Neb., found her way back to perfect health. She writes: "I suffered with kidney trouble and backache and my appetite was very poor at times. A few weeks ago I got Foley's Kidney Pills and gave them a fair trial. They gave me great relief, so continued till now I am again in perfect health." Holton Drug Co.

Easy, Flexible Soles for Tired, Tortured Feet

"Breaking in a shoe is as bad as a boil." No man can work hard—or play hard—if his feet are cramped and plagued and pinched by stiff, unyielding soles.

STICE TALKS ABOUT TRUSTS.

of the trusts, and free from pay-tribute to them, the trusts must be removed.

The sincere insurgents in the Republican party of the LaFollette and new type were rivals of the Democratic party for the votes of North Carolina. There would be merit on both sides of the contest, but the North Carolina Republican officeholder and officeholder belongs to the "stand-pat" and therefore is without the support of the sympathizers and apologists for, the trusts are sincere in stating their position.

They were they would boldly contend that trusts are desirable, but in that they are not, they always present feigning. I believe, and as I understand the Democratic party as an organization, that trusts can be destroyed by the State or the National government. The failure to destroy them is due to lack of understanding, or to a lack of sincere purpose to do so.

Those connected with the National Government and who assert that the question is one for the State government alone, and those who are connected with the various State governments and who assert that the question is for the National government lose the opportunity for real service.

The trust question in North Carolina in practical form, is the question of how to stop the losses and robbery of people caused by the accumulation, illegitimate methods, of money that rightfully belongs to the people, in the hands of trust operators.

Of course, we are most interested in the hands of the trusts that operate most largely in North Carolina.
We are interested to a greater or less degree in destroying all trusts.

The burdens imposed upon our people by the trusts annually are heavier than state and county taxes.
The tribute paid by North Carolina in the way of illegitimate profits to the great trust which operates in this State exceeds the money paid for the educational system of the State.

All pensions paid to confederate soldiers in addition to the exactions of the American Tobacco Company we pay tribute to the sugar trust by buying our sugar at about two cents a pound more than the same sugar is sold for in London. We are at the mercy of the steel trust, the oil trust, the woolen goods trust and a score of other trusts, which are exploiting us to the limit of avarice and greed of men like Rockwell, Percy, Aldrich, Morgan, Sherman and Cannon.

Employees in the political department of these aggregations of criminality tell us that they do not lower the price of what they buy, or increase the price of what they sell.

Every intelligent person knows that lowering of the price of what they sell and the raising of the price of what they buy is the very end and purpose of being.

In the case of the American Tobacco Company is fairly representative of all other trusts. It is not necessary to statistics to prove that while almost every farm product has increased in price in the last fifteen years, under the operation of the law of supply and demand, by reason of the population in the cities increasing faster than the rural population, that artificial depression has prevented the increase of the price of tobacco within that period.

This could be proved by statistics but can be established in a shorter way. The courts have declared that the American Tobacco Company is an illegal combination in restraint of trade.

This was the decision of a Circuit Court of the United States, and of one of the Circuit Courts of Appeals of the United States. This is a judicial determination of a fact of which we all have common knowledge. This trust being a monopoly, of course, has it in its power to lower the prices of the articles which it has monopolized and which it buys, and to increase the price of what it sells.

The only limit set for a complete monopoly in fixing prices is the limit to the avarice and greed of those who manage the monopoly.

The ordinary man under such circumstances would surrender to the temptation of love of gain, and tax his fellows unfairly, but if this is not true, and the ordinary man is an altruist, it would indeed be a stupid fellow who would entrust his welfare and that of his children to the latter day financial and commercial pirates, who grow rich under the provisions of the law made for their benefit, or in defiance of all laws enacted against them. It is, in deed, only a subservient tool or a very credulous person who will assert that the interests of the people are safe in such hands. The facts are to the contrary. What is the proof?

"It is not a theory but a condition that confronts us."

The most embarrassed farmers in this State are the tobacco farmers. They work as hard and as intelligently as any but they are poorer than any other class of farmers. Many of them are following the path trod by the independent tobacco manufacturers and are being forced by the American Tobacco Company's methods to abandon the tobacco business altogether. It would be easy to give a history of their struggles and show that those of them who are yet paying tribute to the devilish ingenuity and insatiable greed of the malefactors of illegitimate and ill gotten wealth, are able to do so, largely because their wives and children are slaves to the task, and are laboring at a sacrifice of many of the comforts and conveniences of life. In proportion as the tobacco farmer has grown poorer, the one great tobacco buyer has grown inordinately rich. Every man who is largely connected with, or interested in the American Tobacco Company, the United States Steel Co., the Standard Oil Company and the sugar trust, and many other like trusts have accumulated millions or hundreds of millions.

One hundred such men control the money and business of this country and bring on national business and money panics at will. Their power to do so is due to illegitimate methods, and these illegitimate methods have enriched a few men and have impoverished many. The market value of the stock of the trusts is many hundreds per cent. above their par value and producers of articles which the trusts buy are distressingly poor. In the face of this appalling condition what is the attitude of the Republicans in North Carolina who seek the support and ask for the votes of the people. They are all the supporters of the "stand-pat" wing of the Republican party, and are the severest critics of the Western insurgents who are trying to free the Republican party from the dominion of the trusts.

HAIR SOFT AS SILK.

New Scientific Treatment Kills Dandruff
Germs and Makes Hair Soft.

It is an accepted fact, a proven fact, that dandruff is a germ disease; and it is also a demonstrated fact that Newbro's Herpicide kills the dandruff germ. Without dandruff falling hair would stop, and thin hair will thicken.
Herpicide not only kills the dandruff germ, but it also makes hair as soft as silk. It is the most delightful hair dressing made. It cleanses the scalp from dandruff and keeps it clean and healthy. Itching and irritation are instantly relieved, and permanently cured.
There's nothing "just as good." Take no substitute. Ask for "Herpicide." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co.,

DUKE TRIPS IN RAGTIME.

Visit to Red Light District After Supper to Franz Josef.

San Francisco Dispatch.

Duke Franz Josef, of Bavaria, has mastered the two-step under the glare of acetylene gas at an Ocean Beach resort. In the wee sma' hours of this morning this young nobleman, guided by a gayly costumed ragtime songstress, received his first lesson in the city's red light district.

It was no easy task for the light-footed Duke to abandon the grace of the ballroom and shuffle his feet to ragtime, but he persevered until he finally won the plaudits of his judges, among them Peter Martin, Templeton Crocker, Clair Payne and half a dozen other notable members of the 400.

Duke Franz Josef's initiation into the two-step was the aftermath of a supper given at the St. Francis Hotel by the Peter Martins to the young member of Bavaria royalty.

FIRE THIS MORNING.

Store Occupied by C. L. Walters Gutted By Flames.

An alarm of fire at 2:10 this morning called the firemen to the store occupied by Mr. C. L. Walters, East Washington street. The fire, which was discovered by a negro living in a house adjoining the store, had gained considerable headway when the firemen arrived. Two streams of water was soon playing on the flames and in a short while the blaze was extinguished. However, the entire stock of goods was ruined either by the flames or water. Just the amount of damage could not be ascertained.

The building was owned by Mr. D. F. Causey and his loss is estimated at about $600. Just one year ago the building was burned down, this making the third time the fire has destroyed the building.

T. P. A'S WON BY EASY SCORE

Seven Inning Contest Pulled Off by Traveling Men in Great Style—Marion Fanned Nine Men, His Opponents Struck Out Same Number—The Base Stealing a Feature of the Game—Will Play Third Game Saturday Week.

The Travelers' Protective Association defeated the United Commercial Travelers at Cone Park yesterday afternoon by the easy score of 12 to 5. Both teams have won a game this year and it is likely that the deciding contest will be pulled off Saturday week if the weather is not too cold.

The contest yesterday was featured by the tumbling of the outfielders when ever balls were knocked into their territory and the base-stealing of both teams. But one chance was given the outfield and this was not accepted, the majority of the balls being knocked in the infield. Three-sevenths of the putouts were in the nature of strikeouts and several other putouts were accomplished by running baserunners down like dogs after rabbits. With the exception of the first Lynn caught a fine game, several fouls being taken that many professionals would have missed.

In the first inning the T. P. A. team was going badly and it looked easy for the U. C. T. boys. But they pulled together and their opponents never scored again until the last inning when they sent two men across the rubber. This was done by a fielder's choice, two batters, an infield out and a steal home.

The Telegram is asked in this connection to say that at the next regular meeting of the U. C. T. Saturday night Oct. 1, a full attendance of members is desired as plans will be inaugurated looking to the entertainment next summer of the Grand Council of the Carolinas.

Room For School Children.

Supt. J. L. Mann, of the city schools, states that the Lee street school will open Monday morning. This will relieve the overflow at the Normal Training school. The overflow at the Ashboro Street school will be accommodated in St. Andrew's church, pending the completion of the addition to the school building. Supt. Mann states that there is now plenty of room for all children and parents need not fear that their children will not be comfortably cared for.

Dakota Street Defeats Randolph Avenue.

Yesterday afternoon there was a hard fought game of ball between Dakota street and Randolph avenue. The result was Dakota street 14 and Randolph avenue 13. Batteries for Dakota street were Sullivan and Wolfe and Alfred and Alfred for Randolph avenue.

The Family Finances

How important it is to adopt a definite plan for handling the family funds. When money is received, it should be carefully allotted to the various objects for which it is intended. For example, a certain portion for the bills that are due; another portion for the current expenses; another portion for any special object, such as: church, lodge or society dues, and yet another portion for the savings account—do not neglect to save a part of your money.
